May Procession and Crowning of Mary May 5, 2024—Following the 9:00 a.m. Mass

The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Sacred Heart parish is pleased to facilitate a May procession and crowning of Our Lady. We are inviting all children grade K-8 to participate. We invite the children who received their First Holy Communion on April 20th to wear their First Communion attire. All children are encouraged to wear their 'Sunday best.'

Mary is truly our spiritual mother. We are happy to honor her, and express our love for her through this sacred tradition!

- Children should sit with their family during Mass, and will be directed to go to the back of the church after Mass.
- Members of the Sodality will give each child a flower to place in front of Our Blessed Mother and one girl who was confirmed this year will be asked to crown Our Mother.
- Sodality members will assist the children with the procession.

Sunday, May 12 is Mother's Day. As is our custom here at Sacred Heart, a novena of Masses, beginning on Mother's Day will be offered for all mothers, both living and deceased, whose names are submitted to us.

The novena will begin on Sunday, May 12th and conclude on Monday, May 20. Special cards and envelopes will be available at all entrances beginning today, Sunday, April 28th. This is a wonderful way to remember our mothers, grandmothers, friends, and relatives living and deceased.

Please submit your envelope with the name(s) no later than Thursday, May 9, to the office or through the offertory collection. All envelopes will be placed in the sanctuary next to the Blessed Mother statue during the novena of Masses.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Gospel – John 15:1-8—April 28, 2024

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

GOSPEL MEDITATION—ENCOURAGING A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 28, 2024
5th Sunday of Easter

My friend and fellow pastor, Father Paul, noticed unsightly, overgrown trees near his parish church. He asked the maintenance crew to cut back the growth which they happily did telling him the trees would be much healthier and even fuller after a good pruning. A few days later, Father Paul received a letter from an irate man in the neighborhood who wrote, "Jesus would never prune trees like that. He loves trees, unlike you."

I suspect that the neighbor was not familiar with this week's Gospel in which Jesus says of his Father, "He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit" (John 15:2). I don't mean to pick too much on that fellow. He was perhaps ignorant of arboriculture. But I'd wager his main confusion was the pruning and removing quality of God's love. That confusion afflicts us all to some degree, doesn't it? It is just so darn easy to react negatively when God cuts something out of our lives and assume it's not his work at all. In the moment, all we see is the loss and not the loving desire for future flourishing.

The cross is the great pruning of Christ's body. Jesus' rising is the brand-new growth. It is God's promise to us that all the painful pruning in life is leading us somewhere beautiful. What has been cut back or out in your life? A friend, an opportunity, a sense of certainty, a job, health, a relationship? This week, offer those dry branches to the one who lovingly prunes us in order to make our lives burst with verdant growth.

LIFE

St. Gianna Beretta Molla

St. Gianna Beretta Molla is a modern-day saint for the sanctity of human life. Here are ten things that you should know about St. Gianna Molla.

1. St. Gianna's feast day is today, April 28, the day of her birth into her new life in Heaven. She is known as the patron saint of mothers, physicians, and unborn children.
2. St. Gianna grew up in a large family of 13 children though only eight survived to adulthood. Her parents were both members of the Third Order of Saint Francis. One of her siblings, Enrico Beretta, is a Servant of God.
3. St. Gianna was always devoted to her faith and had a heart for service. She was involved in Catholic Action and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. She loved to care for those in need especially the elderly.
4. St. Gianna was a pediatrician. She opened her own pediatric practice. Her dream was to offer gynecology services to poor women alongside her missionary brother, but due to her own chronic health issues this dream was not possible.
5. St. Gianna married Pietro Molla in 1953. She referred to her marriage as a "Sacrament of Love" and knew it was her path to Heaven. Pietro died in 2010 but he was alive as Gianna was canonized!
6. The Mollas had four children on earth and two miscarried babies in Heaven. Three of their children, Pierluigi, Laura, and Gianna, are still alive today! Their second child, Mariolina, died at age 7.
7. St. Gianna had a very difficult fourth pregnancy and was advised to abort her child. She had developed a fibroma on her uterus and opted to remove the fibroma rather than have an abortion or a hysterectomy.
8. St. Gianna died one week after giving birth at the age of 39. Though her daughter, Gianna, was delivered safely, St. Gianna's health took a turn for the worse after the birth.
9. St. Gianna was canonized on May 16, 2004. The miracle that was attributed to her canonization was a mother who prayed desperately to Blessed Gianna to save her baby. The baby was miraculously delivered in perfect health despite the lack of amniotic fluid in the mother's womb.
10. The first pro-life women's healthcare center in New York is named after St. Gianna. There are three center locations handling infertility, pregnancy, and teaching the Natural Family Planning ("NFP") method.

On this feast day, St. Gianna Molla, pray for us!

Philip and James, also known as St. Philip the Apostle and St. James the Less, were two of the twelve apostles of Jesus Christ. Although they are often overshadowed by some of the more well-known apostles such as Peter, Paul, and John, Philip and James played important roles in the early Christian church¹. Let's delve into their stories: James, Son of Alphaeus. We know little about this man except his name and the fact that Jesus chose him to be one of the 12 pillars of the New Israel, which is His Church. He is not the James of Acts, who was the son of Clopas, a "brother" of Jesus, and later became the bishop of Jerusalem. The traditional author of the Letter of James is also a different James. To avoid confusion with James the son of Zebedee, who was also an apostle and known as James the Greater, James, son of Alphaeus, is sometimes referred to as James the Lesser. Philip: Philip hailed from the same town as Peter and Andrew: Bethsaida in Galilee. Jesus called him directly, and Philip, in turn, sought out Nathanael, telling him about the "one about whom Moses wrote." Like the other apostles, Philip took time to realize who Jesus was. For instance, when faced with the challenge of feeding a great multitude, Philip responded practically, calculating the cost of buying enough food for everyone. On another occasion, Philip asked Jesus to show them the Father, to which Jesus replied, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." (young-catholics.com)
